

Worksheet #

3.11

(adj.) head-in-the-clouds - guided by whim and fancy.”

- THE FREE DICTIONARY BY FARLEX

THE ART OF SILLINESS

An Online Workshop with Carla Sonheim • Session III • Saturday, 1/15/11

IT'S SILLY SATURDAY!

So you have to walk around with your head in the

The Squeen and her subjects are often described as having their “heads in the clouds” (which is completely ridiculous, as no one is THAT tall — duh.). In any case, your assignment today is to fill the page with CLOUDS while experimenting with at least three different kinds of black pens. (That’s right, spend 10 minutes just playing with pen and ink!)

Thick pens, thin pens, brush pens... just play around! (And if you only have one pen, just try to get as many different “looks” as you can with that one pen.)

or...

Just forget it and go enjoy your Saturday! (You can play your “Head-in-the-Clouds” card today.)