Worksheet #

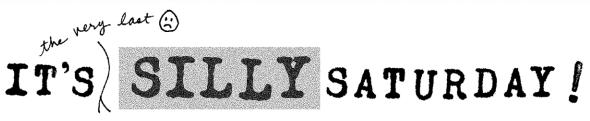

"Among famous traitors of history one might mention the weather."

- ILKA CHASE

THE ART OF SILLINESS

An Online Workshop with Carla Sonheim • Session III • Saturday, 1/29/11

What you do today depends on the weather!

Stay inside, and find something that you think would be fun to draw. Stay inside, and find something that you trillik would be full Draw it four times in the ways indicated in each box, below.

Do a one-liner of your subject (flowy! loopy!).

Do a blind contour drawing of your subject.

Do a contour drawing with your non-dominanant hand.

Make a quick sketch using short, loose lines.

IF IT'S DRY... Go outside, and find something that you think would be fun to draw. Draw it four times in the ways indicated in each box, above.