Drawing Exercise #4

By PROCLAMATION
of the Squeen,

"BE SQUARE."

Or that they can look at several objects during their 10 minutes.

You forgot to tell them to close one eye.

and
"LOOK ABOUT YOU."

Lucky pups... today's drawing assignment doesn't involve any drawing! Instead it involves cutting out the two squares, above, and running around peering through the inside square, cropping things (kind of like looking through a camera viewfinder, but it's paper instead). Find something to look at, then spend ten minutes total peering through the hole while moving the square to the right, to the left, up, down, closer to your face, further, etc.

EXTRA CREDIT

Using the spaces above, draw three "thumbnail sketches" of some of your favorite compositions (use a pencil, and keep the drawings quick and scribbly).
