

"The imaginary world has always been the most fun place for me to be."

- CLAIRE FORLANI

THE ART OF SILLINESS

An Online Workshop with Carla Sonheim • Session 5 • Monday, 2/20/12

Drawing Exercise #10

IMAGINARY ANIMALS

Do a contour drawing of a fantasy creature made out of three different animals of your choice. For example, an elpha-liza-fox might have an elephant head, a lizard body, and a foxy tail. (If you wanted you could try drawing an elpha-liza-fox. That would be okay. The Squeen wouldn't mind. No really, it's okay! Go ahead!)

But if you don't like el-liza-foxes, you can draw other animal combinations! This list will help get you started with the animal ideas. Find photo references to help you out in case you don't have a pet hyena. You can choose to render your animals realistically or stylize them. Don't forget to name your creature!

hyena
dog
horse
giraffe
snake
hamster
chinchilla
pig
cow
chicken
turtle
sloth
fish
lion
spider
buffalo
deer
owl ferret

EXTRA CREDIT

Spend a bit more time on your imaginary animal and add detailed feathers, scales, horns, claws, etc.