

"Searching is half the fun: life is much more manageable when thought of as a scavenger hunt as opposed to a surprise party." - JIMMY BUFFETT

THE ART OF SILLINESS

An Online Workshop with Carla Sonheim • Session 5 • Wednesday, 2/22/12

IT'S TIME FOR A DRAWING

SCAVENGER HUNT

Here's how it works. You have one full week to draw the following 20 things. You can draw them on separate pieces of paper, in your sketchbook, or on your forearm... your choice! (The Squeen always gives you choices!) Use any media you wish. Check off the boxes as you complete each drawing.

Four one-line drawings of any object (or objects) in your home or garage. Ideas: lawn mower, computer, toilet, etc.

(worksheet 5.3)

Three wrong-handed drawings of faces found in a magazine or online.

(worksheet 5.1)

Five blind contour drawings of a pet or photo reference of a dog or cat.

(worksheet 5.6)

Two contour drawings of some flowers (can use a photo reference).

(worksheet 5.10)

One negative space drawing of something of your choice (just draw the negative shapes)

(worksheet 5.9)

Five scribbly drawings of people standing around (can be from life or from photo references).

(worksheet 5.16)

Okay, obviously if you do the whole thing, it will take more than 10 minutes! (If you only want to draw for ten minutes today, great! Just pick 2 or 3 items from the list above.) But if you draw all 20 items by the last day of the Silly Workshop — Tuesday, February 28, 2012 — and email me telling me you did it, you will get a PRIZE! Good luck! (carla@carlasonheim.com)

EXTRA CREDIT

Write a Hump Day Haiku and post online! Your topic: Eyeglasses