

"Any man who can drive safely while kissing
a pretty girl is simply not giving the kiss
the attention it deserves." - ALBERT EINSTEIN

THE ART OF SILLINESS

An Online Workshop with Carla Sonheim • Session 5 • Thursday, 2/23/12

Drawing Exercise #12

CARS!

You might need to use the back of the worksheet for this assignment! Today you're going to do 5-10 "scribbly drawings" of the same car (from life if possible).

Here's how to do it: Get your pen and paper (and a hard surface such as a clipboard or book) and go outside. Find a car, and position yourself so that you are looking at it from an angle.

Look at the car a moment, then start scribbling in a manner similar to the way you scribbled in worksheet 5.14 (but this time, instead of scribbling randomly, scribble with intention). Hold your pen or pencil very loosely and work as fast as you can.

Look at your reference more OFTEN than your paper. Scribble more densely in the darker areas (lights, wheels, windows) and more sparsely in the lighter parts. You are trying to capture the "essence" of the car.