

"I thought of that while riding my bicycle."

- ALBERT EINSTEIN,
ON THE THEORY OF RELATIVITY

THE ART OF SILLINESS

An Online Workshop with Carla Sonheim • Session 5 • Friday, 2/10/12

Drawing Exercise #3

ONE-LINE BIKES

Draw 6-10 bicycles from your imagination using one line only.

How to do it: Imagine a bicycle in your mind's eye and put pen to paper. Once you start drawing, DO NOT lift your pen until you have a "complete" drawing. Try to draw these in a "flowing" manner... not too fast, not too slow... and let your subconscious guide your hand.

Think loops!

EXTRA CREDIT

Define the following Fleeps and post online!
CHORKLE, PLOOZER, PLUNCH, CHAPOOSA