the art of SILLINESS!

An Online Workshop with Carla Sonheim

WINS DAY

Silly: It's good for the souly-soul-soul.

Drawing Exercise #11

By PROCLAMATION
of the Squeen,

"DRAW" WITH YOUR EYES

Today your assignment is to draw the things around you — trees, cars, flowers, dishes, toys, faces — with your eyes ONLY. No pen or paper today! Just pick an edge of your object and "draw it" with your eyes. You can also "draw" photographs or other 2D references.

(I know what you're thinking, but once again I ask you to simply trust the Squeen.)

EXTRA CREDIT

Draw the things around you a second time using your right index finger. (Hint: It's easier if you close one eye.)

Are we supposed to wave our fingers
in the air?

Pretty sure that's what she means.

It's hump day haiku!

Write a 5-7-5 structured haiku poem and post online. Your topic: art supplies.
