the art of SILLINESS!

An Online Workshop with Carla Sonheim

Tuesday

In Old English, silly = saelig = "to be blessed." (We knew that.)

Drawing Exercise #15

SCRIBBLE!

Like this:

Your assignment today is to get a fresh piece of paper and scribble all over it for five minutes straight. Do not try to make anything out of your designs... just pretend you are two years old and are just moving that pen around the page for the pure joy of making marks.

Some of you might find this to be the hardest exercise yet. That's okay, but do try to "let go" now. Hold your pen with your fist. Work quickly. Just make a big scribbly mess all over your paper.

It's time for another Fleep List! (Nonsense words, made-up words... Fleep Words!) This time, just complete the word that is already started.

Now post your Fleep List online!

EXTRA CREDIT Take several pieces of paper and do the same thing, but for 10-20 minutes.
