We're silly... in a good way!

Drawing Exercise #21

By PROCLAMATION
of the Squeen,

"DRAW
ME
A TROG"

*As everyone knows,
troggs are very rare creatures
who live deep inside the dark forests of Fleep.
The Squeen has decided she wants one
for her very own.*

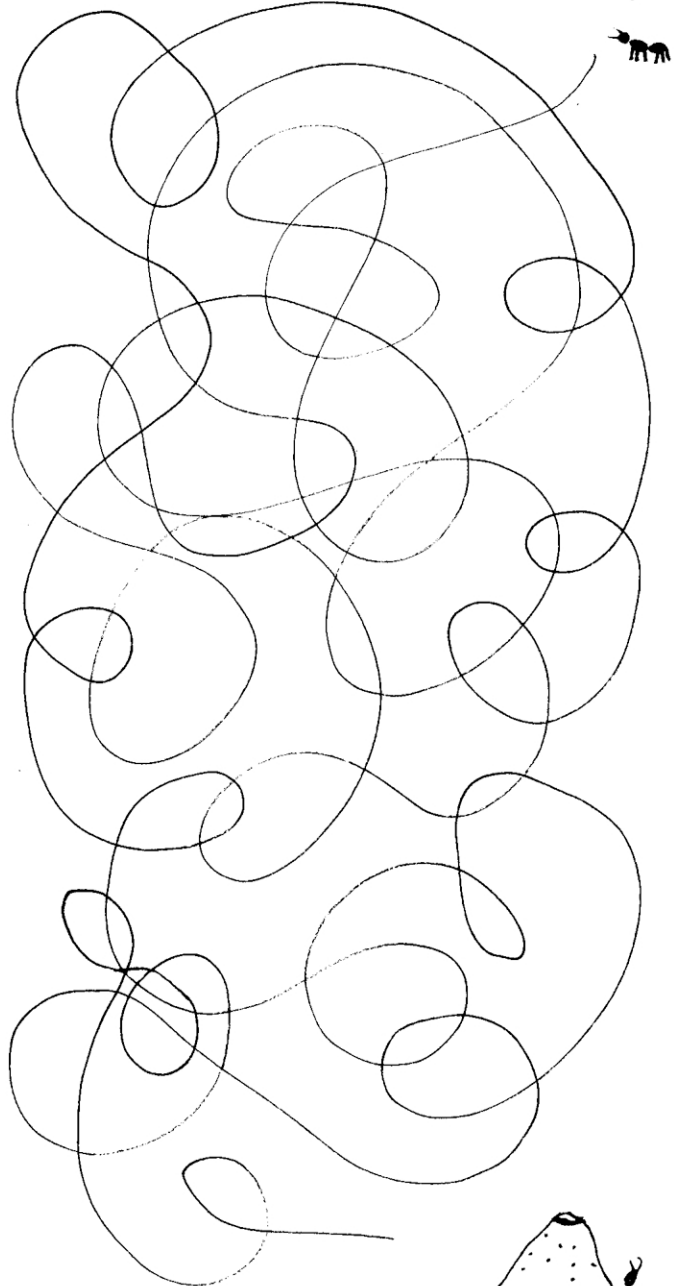

That's where you come in. Since trogs are so shy (as you know), we have yet to actually discover what one looks like. It's your job to draw a trog from some combination of the elements below (plus whatever other things you'd like to add).

Squeen Carla will pick one design from the MASSES submitted (either by email or to the flickr site). She will then re-imagine (draw) that particular trog and send it to the "winner" as a prize. (Note: The Squeen is not looking for great drawing skills here, just your idea of what a trog looks like!) Deadline for submission:
Friday, April 30th. (Yes, soon. Get drawing!)

Elements you can use:

- |          |               |                 |
|----------|---------------|-----------------|
| wing(s)  | whisker(s)    | spike(s)        |
| snout(s) | feather(s)    | bulbous knee(s) |
| horn(s)  | long fur      | facial hair     |
| claw(s)  | fingernail(s) | tail(s)         |

Help the little ant
wind its way home.

EXTRA CREDIT See if you can find any creatures in the ant's path!
